We're going to begin with the one where the characters learn it's time for the family to get out. We hope you enjoyed this episode, which is actually fairly similar to season 4's episode. It's a great little bit of comedy, and has plenty of good things going for it, but we also had a ton of questions about a lot of things after episode 1, including: How do you decide if someone is capable of taking a step back, or if that step isn't even necessary? We'll get to that, but in the meantime, we can discuss if it's a good or bad thing that the show just took a quick look at them instead of doing more with them.
